A Novel Plan for Aiding Coal Miners.

POTTSVILLE, Pa., April 19.—Five hundred miners and laborers met near here this afternoon for the purpose of consulting and proposing plans to ask the authorities of the state to legislate in their behalf for immediate aid to enable them to provide for themselves and suffering families. The meeting was orderly. Petitions were signed asking the state to appropriate several million dollars and purchase coal and withhold it from market for several years, so as to enable the iron interests to resume and thereby make demand for coal or take any other prompt measures to create work in this region. Resolutions were passed requesting miners, laborers and workmen of other sections of the state to address the legislature on the same subject. Meetings are to be held throughout Mahoney valley by working people generally for the same purpose.

The Timber Bill Passed.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The senate to-day passed the bill authorizing all bona fide residents of Nevada, Colorado, Utah, New Mexico, Arizona, Wyoming, Dakota, Montana and Idaho, and all other mineral districts to fell and remove for building, agricultural, mining or other domestic purposes any timber growing on mineral lands which are not subject to entry except under U. S. mining laws. The bill grants this privilege subject to such rules and regulations as the secretary of the interior may prescribe for the protection of undergrowth and provides a penalty of a fine not exceeding $500, to which may be added imprisonment not exceeding six months for any violation of this law or the rules and regulations. The bill as reported from the public lands committee provided that no timber should be cut in mountain regions within three miles of the upper timber line.

Confirmations.

WASHINGTON, April 18.—The executive session of the senate to-day was mainly occupied with discussion in regard to the nomination of James O'Neill, of Missouri, as Indian inspector. The principal ground of opposition was his having caused the execution of ten guerrillas while serving as an officer of the union army during the rebellion. Democratic senators generally voted against his confirmation, but it was finally effected by 31 to 18.

Secretary Sherman Subpenaed.

The committee on banking and currency to-day directed a subpena to be issued upon Secretary Sherman to compel him to appear and testify as to details of negotiations he has had with the syndicate for the sale of 4½ per cent bonds. Subpenas will also be issued to members of the syndicate to testify on the same subject.

Congressional Republican Committee.

The Republican congressional committee met to-night; 28 of the 30 members of the committee were present. An executive committee was appointed, consisting of Hale, Allison, Joyce, Hiscock, Sage, Foster and Campbell, Hubbell, Dorsey, and Bruce. This committee will elect a secretary.

Referred for Investigation.

The senate in executive session recommitted the nomination of George F. Cutler as paymaster general of the navy to the committee on naval affairs, with authority to make a thorough investigation of the grave charges preferred against him. He was on Monday confirmed for the above named office.

Financial Conference.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The house committee on banking and currency had a very interesting conference this morning with John A. Stewart, of the U. S. Trust Company of New York, and J. D. Vermilye, of Merchants' Bank of New York. The question of the practicability of maintaining resumption was pressed upon these gentlemen by Ewing, but they held inflexibly the position that resumption can be safely entered upon Jan 1, 1879, and that with the present favorable outlook for good crops and balance of trade in favor of this country, resumption can be maintained.

Diaz Recognized.

WASHINGTON, April 19.—The department of state has received information from Minister Foster that on the 9th inst he recognized the Diaz government. A private letter says the recognition was received with general delight by citizens of Mexico.

Congressional Republican Committee.

Representative Hale, chairman of the Republican congressional committee, has named the following gentlemen as members of the committee provided for by the Republican caucus to confer with the senate committee upon the course to be pursued by Republicans in matters coming before the present session of congress: Hon. Hiram Price, of Iowa; Hon. J. A. Garfield, of Ohio; Hon. O. D. Conger, of Michigan; Hon. M. H. Dunnell, of Minnesota; Hon. Wm. P. Frye, of Maine; Hon. G. L. Fort, of Illinois; Hon. D. M. Thornburgh, of Tennessee; Hon. W. M. Crapo, of Massachusetts; Hon. J. Dwight, of New York; Hon. Russell Errett, of Pennsylvania; Hon. Horace Davis, of California.

The Measures on the Chinese Question

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Owing to previous business engagements most of the Pacific coast delegation in congress were unable to meet their colleagues to-day to determine which of the pending measures on the Chinese question shall be passed, and the conference has therefore been postponed until next Monday morning. Sargent, Davis, Page and Wrenn talked the matter over to-day and agreed that it will be all feasible to urge the house committee to report in addition to its joint resolution for limiting Mongolian immigration which ... the Chinese ... [illegible] ... it will ... every ... of freight ... a capitation tax of $100 each.

The secretary of the interior has affirmed the decision of the general land office in the matter of surveys of various derivative claims.

Bond Subscription

WASHINGTON, April 19.—Subscriptions to the 4 per cent bonds to-day amount to $1,[illegible]00.

French Views of our Tariff

The secretary of the treasury transmitted to the house of representatives a communication from the Bordeaux chamber of commerce addressed to the president and to congress. They say that in perusing the bill for tariff they have been deeply impressed by what concerns the French especially at a time when to a certain extent the ideas of free trade and the public financial situation which has become very prosperous had induced them to hope the United States would gradually lower their custom house duties on different articles for importation. Lowering the rates would increase the revenue by increasing trade.

The Japanese Indemnity Fund

WASHINGTON, April 19.—In order to induce Japan to take a greater interest in the proposed treaty with Corea, efforts will be made to have returned to Japan the million and a half dollars now in the U. S. treasury known as the Japanese indemnity fund, retaining a small sum only to compensate for actual loss to American citizens resulting from disturbances some years ago in that country.

PARIS INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION.

Opening Programme.

PARIS, April 19.—Arrangements for the opening of the exhibition on the 1st of May were settled at the cabinet council Wednesday night. Shortly before 2 o'clock, M. Teisserenc De Bort, minister of commerce, will receive in the grand vestibule of the Trocadero the foreign princes present, namely the Prince of Wales, Don Francois d'Assise, the Duc de Aosta, Prince Frederic, Crown Prince of Denmark, Prince of Orange and Duke de Leuchtenberg. After conducting them to Princes saloon, he will receive the ambassadors, foreign commissioners, presidents and vice presidents of chambers, ministers, deputations, senators and deputies. Troops being drawn up all along the route from the Elysee, Marshal MacMahon will first repair to the Princes saloon, and procession will then be formed which will march from the grand arcade to the platform overlooking the fountain and commanding a view of nearly all the buildings and ground. Here M. Teisserenc de Bort will welcome the marshal in a short speech and the marshal will then declare the exhibition opened. A hundred and one guns in the Invalides on Mont Valerien and on an island in the Seine will follow the announcement. The military bands will strike up, all the fountains will play, and the soldiers stationed before the flagstaff will hoist the flags of all nations on the roofs of the two palaces and annexes. The marshal will then reascend to the Trocadero palace, the procession re-forming, and after completing the round of the building will cross over the river to Champ de Mars. Troops will be drawn up on or near the bridge. The terrace of Champ de Mars palace will be occupied by senators, deputies, the council of state, magistrates, academicians, the military staff and French commissioners. Entering by the central door, the procession will go through the grand vestibule decorated with the crown jewels, Severes porcelain, gobelins, tapestries, and the Prince of Wales Indian collection. It will then pass through all the sections, the commissioners of each country greeting it at the door, and will next inspect the military school where all the exhibition workmen will be stationed, and will lastly traverse the machinery annexes. Arriving at the gates, the marshal will take leave of the princes and other distinguished personages and return to the Elysee. Madame MacMahon and wives of ambassadors and ministers will be assigned stations behind the Trocadero platform. The exhibition will be open to the public immediately on the close of the ceremony. Marshal MacMahon will hold a grand reception at the Elysee on opening day, and also give a dinner in honor of the Prince of Wales and Duke d'Aousta.

The Journal des Debats states in view of the decision of the German Emperor to exclude from the German fine art section of the exhibition any pictures recalling the war of 1870, the French government has resolved to exclude French pictures commemorating that war.

MEXICO.

A Mexican Insurrection.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., April 19.—Reliable information which has just reached here from the interior of Mexico, states that an insurrection against the Diaz government is steadily but surely ripening. It is understood there that Lerdo's party are arming Mexican Indians to renew raiding in order to bring matters on the Rio Grande to their former unstable condition as regards the United States. The commanding officer of the sub district of Pecos telegraphs to department headquarters that Mexican Indians are raiding in concert with Indians from Fort Stanton reservation, who are now on an extensive raid in Texas.

CORVALLIS, April 17, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

The DAILY OREGONIAN failed to come to Corvallis by rail on Thursday. I heard the Express Co delivered theirs as usual. I can only account for this failure on the ground (as I learn) the Tilton-Beecher scandal is received and published in THE OREGONIAN and excluded from the mail as immoral. I think we can stand the immoral part, but feel greatly disappointed at its failure to come and I sincerely hope it can be remedied. [illegible] three ... within about ten days.

THE EASTERN QUESTION.

Peace Prospects Improving

NEW YORK, April 19.—The Herald's St. Petersburg correspondent has interviewed ... the ... England ... [illegible] ... teeth. ... appease England. ... wishes ... by diplomacy and refuses ... declare openly with regard to the other powers. Russia's interests demand strict neutrality ... tendency toward England, but the marshal, president and chiefs of the army want to remain quiet and keep on good terms with Russia. To sum up, the chances of an understanding are increasing gradually but slowly. We must wait some time for a solution. The congress will perhaps be replaced by arbitration with England, but nothing positive can be said on that point yet.

The Moscow Riot

The emeute in Moscow last Monday was of no consequence. It was put down by the peasants themselves and had no significance whatever.

Peaceful in Tone.

LONDON, April 19.—The tenor of this morning's news from capitals is peaceful but does not quite confirm the positive announcements published yesterday.

Press Opinions.

The Daily News has a St. Petersburg special saying that the unofficial press is less sanguine than the official because it thinks that England's preparations are inconsistent with a peaceful inclination. The national movement for subscribing a fund to arm Russian cruisers is making progress in all parts of the empire.

Thessalian Insurrection a Failure

A dispatch to the Daily News from Athens says it is now certain that the Thessalian insurrection is a complete failure. The Greeks have lost all heart for further effort. They rely now wholly on England.

Why Vefyk was Dismissed

A Vienna correspondent says Ahmed Vefyk Effendi, whom the sultan dismissed from the position of president of the council and minister of interior, advocated immediate alliance with England while the other ministers and the sultan favored neutrality for the present.

The Thunderer on the Situation.

LONDON, April 19.—The Times, commenting on a dispatch from St Petersburg to the effect that the belief prevails in official circles that Germany's mediation is likely to be successful, that the congress will soon meet, a preliminary conference of ambassadors at Berlin probably deciding that the invitations shall be issued to consider modifications necessary in the treaties of 1856 and 1871; that it is confidently expected that some such formula will be accepted in both London and St Petersburg, etc., says: "We cannot afford any more engagements of imperfect accuracy. It is necessary therefore for the present to entertain with reserve the encouraging hopes held out to us by the mediation now offered, and however hopeful we may have been of a preliminary interchange of views it will also be necessary for our government to consider with great care the specific proposition which is made to them." The same article considers that no alarm need be aroused by the proclamation of the queen prohibiting the export from this country of war materials. Such a prohibition, it says, is a necessary precaution so long as we are compelled to contemplate the possibility of having to assert our interest by force.

Russo-Roumanian Hostilities.

LONDON, April 19.—A correspondent of the Times at Kalafat telegraphs as follows: The hostile feeling between Russians and Roumanians is increasing and preparations are making to transfer the military stores and state archives from Bucharest to Turnzeverin.

Some Statements that were Premature

BERLIN, April 19.—The statement of the Central News of London yesterday, that the powers have agreed to Prince Bismarck's suggestion that ambassadors at Berlin should hold a conference to arrange the course of proceedings at the proposed congress, time of meeting, etc., and that the respective governments have been requested to instruct their ambassadors accordingly, is premature, although there is no doubt the chances of the conference assembling have certainly increased.

Evacuation of Shumla, Varna and Batoum

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—The porte has addressed a note to Grand Duke Nicholas explaining the conditions of the promise made by Turkey to evacuate Shumla, Varna and Batoum. It says the greater part of the garrisons at these places have already been withdrawn. The treaty of peace does not fix any definite period for the evacuation, and moreover the positions respectively occupied now are conformable to the provisions of the armistice. The porte promises in proportion as New Bulgarian territory is evacuated by the Russians in accordance with the treaty Turkey will successively surrender one fortress after another. It is rumored the Russians intend to stipulate for a certain date for the evacuation of Batoum, threatening otherwise to occupy Kavik on the Bosporus.

Arsenal Removed.

The arsenal of Tophane has been removed to Scutari.

Turks favor England.

People of Turkey and the Turkish army favor England.

Russian Claims on the Danube.

BUCHAREST, April 19.—It is said Russia, in view of Roumania's demands and the wishes of Europe for the effectual neutralization of the Danube, will abandon her claim to Reni and other points on the Danube above the St. George's canal, but will maintain her claims for Ismael, Bolgrad and Cahoul, and insist upon the negotiation of a convention for establishing depots to facilitate the passage of troops through Roumania.

Roumania's Dependence on Germany and Austria

At a secret sitting of the Roumanian chamber, M. Bratiano, explaining the result of his mission to Vienna, said Roumania could rely upon the support of Austria and Germany only in so far as the Bessarabian question involved the question of freedom of the Danube. Neither Germany nor Austria believed Russia intended to attack that freedom, and both would be satisfied with the neutralization of the Danube and certain guarantees. In view of this state of affairs, M. Bratiano recommended that Roumania should come to an arrangement with Russia. The Russian representative has also complained to Prince Charles of the violent language used by Cogalniceano and pointed out that it would be more advantageous to appease the public mind than bring about consequences for which Russia declined the responsibility. Both the Russian and Roumanian armies continue to concentrate at strategical points.

A Concession to Servia

BELGRADE, April 19.—It is stated the Russians have agreed to the annexation by Servia of the district of Wranja.

Plebiscite

It is believed the question of the possession of Pirot will be settled by a plebiscite.

A Plan to Snub England

PARIS, April 19.—The Journal Des Debats declares a belief that Germany meditates ... aims at the re-establishment of a triple alliance and the isolation of England.

A New Hitch

Special dispatches from St. Petersburg mention a new hitch has occurred in the negotiations. One correspondent says it is likely that Germany in the proposed congress should be summoned to revise the treaties of 1856 and 1871. Russia accepted the proposal but England has rejected it and again insists on her original conditions. It now remains to be seen whether this dispute might not be settled by a preliminary conference. Another correspondent says: Yesterday's sanguine expectations turn out to have been somewhat exaggerated, but at least provisionally. It appears that new difficulties have arisen. Negotiations however continue and may still lead to a successful result.

Naval Reserves to be Called Out

LONDON, April 20.—There is reason to believe that at the present activity in commissioning ships for the ... a royal proclamation ... [illegible] ... of the naval reserve.

Deaths among the Sick and Wounded at Erzeroum

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 19.—An English surgeon who has just returned from Erzeroum says 10,000 sick and wounded Turkish soldiers have died since the evacuation of that city and the Russians have lost 20,000 by sickness since they entered the plain of Erzeroum.

Ordered to the Front

A special from Vienna reports that all convalescents in Russia have been ordered to join their regiments in Turkey as quickly as possible.

Personal Only.

The Standard states that the Duke of Edinburg will remain in the Mediterranean for the present.

Fruitless Effort

A dispatch dated Vienna, Friday night, says it is semi-officially stated that Germany's endeavor to mediate has so far led to no result.

Russia's Assent to a Congress

A Berlin correspondent says Russia does not hesitate to intimate privately that she won't object to a congress discussing all of the more important clauses of the treaty but declines to make its validity dependent upon the consequent action of the powers. A preliminary conference to settle whether this offer will be satisfactory is still possible but doubtful.

Situation Unimproved

LONDON, April 19.—A Vienna dispatch says intelligence received at the Austrian foreign office shows there is no improvement in the situation.

War Ship for the Dardanelles

A special from Portsmouth states that the iron clad Invincible has sailed for the Dardanelles.

Thessalian Truce.

LONDON, April 20.—A telegram from Athens received in Paris says England has arranged a truce in Thessaly. The Turks have retired to the fortresses and the insurgents to Greece.

Providing Against a Blockade

A Bucharest dispatch says the Russian officials at Bucharest are preparing sixteen thousand transport boats to provide against the Black Sea line of communication being closed by the British fleet.

AN ARGUMENT FOR IDEAL MONEY

SEATTLE, W. T., April 10, 1878.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE OREGONIAN

In your comments on an article in the Seattle Intelligencer on the money question you admit that the writer's arguments are "very important, if true," and then say that it so happens that it is not the sovereign will of the government that gives value either to gold, silver or paper. Gold and silver have value whether backed by statutory enactments or not. Let us see how much value they would have without these statutory enactments.

Suppose that the governments of the world were to withdraw their "statutory enactments" from silver and gold, and discard them entirely for use as money, of what value would they be over iron, tin and many other metals now in use? Would they not be subject to all the vicissitudes of barter the same as any other commodity? It is true that they would have a value, but it would be insignificant indeed as compared with their present value. The writer in the Intelligencer said that "a gold dollar is worth a dollar to the holder, not because it is gold, but because of the government's statutory enactment making it a legal tender for all dues and purchases." Would the same weight in gold be "worth a dollar to the holder" but for these "statutory enactments?"

Again, suppose that gold and silver ceased to exist to be found in the bowels of the earth or anywhere else, would governments go to decay, to destruction, for want of money—a "fixed measure of value" by which exchanges could be made and commercial transactions carried out? If not, where then would the power, the authority, come from to attach a "fixed measure of value" to any other substance, to make it money, but from the legislative enactments of the government or of governments?

Section 14, revised laws relative to mints and assay offices, says: "that the gold coin of the United States shall be a one dollar piece, which at the standard weight of 25 8-10 grains shall be a unit of value; a quarter eagle, or two-and-a-half-dollar piece; a three dollar piece; a half eagle or five dollar piece; an eagle, or ten dollar piece, and double-eagle or twenty dollar piece, which coins shall be a legal tender in all payments at their nominal value." What, the "government of the United States" set a "standard weight of (only) 25 8-10 grains upon a piece of metal—say that it "shall be a unit of value"—a "one dollar piece"—a "legal tender in all payments at its full value," and then say that it is not the sovereign will of the government that gives value to it!

What is true of gold is equally true of silver or paper. But you ask: "If statutory enactments could do so much, why were our greenbacks at one time worth less than forty cents on the dollar?" They were backed by the mandatory expression of the government then the same as now." Let me ask, was that "mandatory expression" simply "United States of America, twenty dollars," the same as on a twenty dollar piece, or "money of the United States, twenty dollars." No "money of the United States," bearing either of these simple inscriptions made so by "statutory enactments" of the government, supported and upheld by all the properties of the nation, will ever sell in the market for thirty or forty cents on the dollar. But the moment the government attaches a "promise to pay" in that which it has not and cannot get, except by further "promises to pay" with large interest inducements, or demonetizes it with the word "except"—the same as the greenbacks to which you allude—that moment it becomes a commodity in the market subject to all the plots, schemes and devices of money rings and merciless banking institutions—sent up or down at their will and pleasure. But you say that "at the present time there are manifest signs of the ability and willingness of the country to redeem them" (the greenbacks)—hence they are quoted nearly up to the value of gold. I am aware that this impression is abroad in the land—sent out by these Shylocks for temporary purposes, while they are preparing to let the people down into another panic, possibly as disastrous to the country as any they have yet had. Let us see what Secretary Sherman says about redeeming greenbacks. In a very recent consultation with the finance committee of the United States senate, in answer to the question "What could be done to aid him in specie resumption?" he said: "If we are to attempt on the 1st of January to pay off all these greenbacks as presented and to destroy them I have my doubts of our ability. I think the law is perfectly clear now as to the power to reissue up to three hundred million dollars of currency."

This is simply robbing Peter to pay Paul. If our currency greenbacks are so necessary for the country, why redeem them? Why not leave them in circulation instead of calling them in and then having to issue more ... their equivalent in their place. Secretary Sherman said he did not believe that specie payments could be maintained without power to reissue United States notes.

By giving the foregoing a place in THE OREGONIAN you will oblige several of your readers in this place. Respectfully submitted

Ex-Congressman Vance out in the Wide, Wide World

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—It will be remembered that some days ago the overland dispatches said a telegram had been received by the wife of ex-Congressman Vance, of Ohio, to the effect that he was at the Lick House in this city. The Lick House managers then stated that he was not there and the matter was dropped as a hoax. It is now, however, certain that Vance is either in this city or suburbs. A prominent merchant of this city has received a letter from Vance's home, Gallipolis, Ohio. Enclosed is the following telegram dated San Francisco 8th inst., addressed to Mrs. Vance:

"Your husband is here insane but harmless. Have you instructions? W. H. LAMB"

The letter requested this merchant to inquire into the matter. A reporter of the Bulletin to-day learned at the Lick House that Vance was not stopping there, but that letters and telegrams were addressed to him at the house, care of W. H. Lamb, who called there for them. Lamb is unknown to the people at the house and is supposed to be a stranger in the city.

Steamship Oregon.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The steamship Oregon, which sailed from New York on the 16th February, in command of Capt. Connor, bound hither via Rio Janeiro and Valparaiso, arrived off the Heads this morning, communicated her name to the outer station and then proceeded on her voyage to Portland.

A Wife Murderer.

The inquest on the body of Mrs. Lydia O'Neill, found hanging in her house in Oakland yesterday, tends to render it probable that Mrs. O'Neill was murdered by her husband. One of the children, a boy five years old, said he was awakened by hearing his mother scream. He got out of bed and went into the shed where he saw his mother hanging. He saw his father take a night dress and overskirt from the body and put them into a bucket. He also saw him lay his mother's body on some pillows in the shed. The little boy was severely cross examined, but each time he told the same story, and the fact that pillows were found near the shed with blood upon them seems to corroborate the little fellow's story.

The Raised Printing Bills

SAN FRANCISCO, April 19.—The finance committee of the board of supervisors this afternoon took testimony in the case of the raised advertising bills of the Post and Chronicle. A number of experts were examined. The Chronicle in defense held that they would not get any pay for a portion of the work done and made out the accounts at a figure to cover that contingency, and also held that the accounts rendered were not bills but memoranda. The Post took a different line of defense, holding that they had a right to charge for the preamble and signatures to each separate proposition though only printed in one case. The committee took the cases under advisement.

Weather Reports

MARYSVILLE, April 19.—The day opened cloudy. Rain began falling at 6 o'clock and continued until about 2 P. M.; afternoon clear, wind south.

SAN DIEGO, April 19.—A heavy storm of wind from the south began early this morning and blew all day. At 5 P. M. it began to rain and up to 8:30 this evening 60-100ths of an inch fell and still raining with indications of continuance through the night, wind southwest. This is by far the most violent storm of the season.

Shipping.

The bark Frank Austin, with coal from the Wellington mine for San Pedro, California, has sailed.

The bark Don Nicholas arrived this morning 14 days from San Francisco.

Railway in the North

OTTAWA, April 19.—It is understood an arrangement with the Saint Paul and Pacific Railway Company is now virtually made with the object of utilizing the Pembina branch railway. It is expected that by the 1st of November there will be all rail communication with Winnipeg from the head of Lake Superior.

Orangemen vs. Catholics.

MONTREAL, April 19.—Several encounters took place between Orangemen, Young Britons and Irish Catholics to-day in the city. As the Britons were marching to church in the forenoon, a Catholic attempted to cross through the procession. He was pursued into Notre Dame Catholic church, where some fighting occurred. Charles O'Hara, who attempted to shut the door on the intruders, was badly beaten. More rioting at 11 to-night in Victoria square, stone throwing and pistol shooting indulged in until a posse of police arrived and quelled the disturbance. An artillery volunteer named Cole received severe wounds and policeman Martin was dangerously wounded in the head. Several large plate glass windows were broken. The police are out in strong force and have cleared the streets of disturbing elements. Considerable party feeling exists arising out of trials going on of those who took part in the late shooting affray in the city.

OREGON.

Albany has got out a directory. It is the first.

Prof. Emery is lecturing at Corvallis on the Mosaic Cosmogony.

The Coos Bay News, like a sensible paper, has quit the patent outside business.

There is a woman in the Curry county jail charged with the murder of her illegitimate child.

A copy of THE OREGONIAN, only 36 hours from the press, reached Marshfield, Coos county, the other day.

Last week there was a heavy snow storm in the coast range, heavier than any that fell during the past winter.

Rev. Dr. Irvine, of Albany, goes east to attend the general assembly of the U. P. church, which meets at Cambridge, Ohio, on the 22d of May.

The Reporter says that parties just returned to Yamhill from Tillamook report that a colony of 30 homesteaders went in there recently and have taken land.

The human remains exhumed in an out-of-the-way place on the bank of the Willamette near Corvallis, recently, are ascertained to be those of an Indian who died in 1859.

Jacksonville Sentinel: The greenback element in this county is coming to the front and is now developing more strength than even its most ardent supporters thought it would get. Meetings continue to be held throughout the country and large clubs are organized at each meeting held.

Railroad Matters

[From the Willamette Farmer.]

Owing to the united effort of Senator Grover and Congressman Williams, the railroad question seems likely to assume shape of a compromise accepted by Senator Mitchell, who has probably become convinced that the people of Oregon will not bear trifling on this important subject.

Chicago Times: Upon the tombstone of Sam J. [illegible] let it be written: He never told his income tax, but let concealment, like a worm in the bud, prey upon his damask and well developed cheek. He knew to log roll and pull the lengthy wire, but he hadn't the courage to pick up the persimmons he had knocked down.

CONGRESSIONAL.

House.

WASHINGTON, April 19.

Committee of ... Singleton, the bill appropriating $36,000 to provide for deficiencies in the public printing office was taken up and passed.

Kelley reported a bill for the free entry of articles imported for exhibition by societies established for the encouragement of arts and sciences; passed.

The speaker announced that the first business in order was a motion to reconsider the vote by which the house refused last Wednesday to refer the adjournment resolution to the committee on ways and means; agreed to, 104 ayes, 36 nays.

Wood then withdrew the motion to refer the resolution and moved to postpone consideration of the proposition until May 15th.

Motion to postpone carried; yeas 129, nays 113, a party vote with the exception of Rainey, who voted with the Democrats in the affirmative, and Cutler, Luttrell, Clymer, Wright and Bridges, who voted with the Republicans in the negative.

Hanna, from the committee on naval affairs, reported adversely the bills for the relief of Secor & Co., Nat McKay and Donald McKay; laid on the table. Also the resolution authorizing the secretary of the navy to organize a board of three officers not below the rank of rear admiral which shall examine into the case of Commander Bushrod Baylor and such other officers of the navy as may deem themselves unjustly passed over by promotions made in conformity with the act of congress approved July 25, 1866; adopted.

Walsh, from the committee on invalid pensions, reported back the senate bill increasing the pension of Gen. Jas. Shields from $30 to $50 per month.

Mills, of Texas, moved to amend by increasing the pension to $100; agreed to and the bill passed.

Goode moved the house go into committee of the whole on the private calendar and that debate on the pending bill "The William and Mary College bill" be closed in two hours.

Conger opposed the latter motion, which was however carried.

After consuming two hours in voting upon dilatory motions the house took a recess until 7:30 P. M., the evening session to be for consideration of business reported from the District of Columbia committee.

When the house met this evening for district business the speaker called Vance to the chair.

Randall then said: I rise, for the first time in my life I think in this house, to a personal explanation. I find in the Star this evening the statement that I have verbally requested Mr. Glover, chairman of the committee on expenditures in the treasury department, to investigate the office of sergeant at arms of this house. There is not a syllable of truth in the statement, nor the gleam of a warrant for it. First, I know nothing whatever of the action of the sergeant-at-arms in the discharge of his duty that needs investigation; and, second, I have never had any conference with Glover on the subject, nor have I directly or indirectly had any communication with him. I think it is due the sergeant at arms to state this. Were I myself the only one involved I never would have noticed it, but as the statement reflects perhaps on the honesty, fidelity and honor of another, I at once and promptly give this contradiction.

Blackburn, from the committee on district of Columbia, reported back the bill relating to the Washington Market Company, which was briefly discussed and without action the house adjourned.

BUSINESS PRINCIPLES IN PUBLIC AFFAIRS

The Standard in a long article scouts the remark presented some days ago by THE OREGONIAN to the effect that candidates named for positions in the state government should be men of affairs of known ability and probity whose reputation for success in private business gives assurance of capability for transaction of the business of the state and it evidently supposes it is speaking with great severity of Mr Beekman whose name is presented for the governorship when it declares that this was the test and standard of fitness adopted by the convention which nominated him It will not do that paper thinks to make business capacity one of the leading tests This is a 'sordid consideration It is true the business of the state is large and has become very complicated It is true that receipts of the treasury during the two years covered by the last official reports were over eight hundred thousand dollars—or to be exact $817 559 01 But for management of these large affairs it is not necessary to require of officials any guarantee in the way of reputation for ability in business On the contrary it is a reproach to a man to claim for him that because during many years he has safely honorably and successfully conducted his own business, such fact is good assurance that he will properly conduct the business of the state. The test of partisanship is the sole measure of fitness Everything else is whistled down the wind. Hence the Standard winks at or defends every feature of the enormous extravagance of the last eight years including the disgraceful peculations in the state printing, which its present candidate for that office, when acting as expert passed and approved

This lofty contempt of experience integrity and efficiency in business is exactly the idea on which the affairs of the state have long been conducted Such has been the rule from the time the offices were 'organized'—as Gov Grover felicitously phrased it—in order to get the most that could be had out of them But still we are assured that the state does not require business men It wants no sordid administration It has long had an easy and "liberal" government, conducted mainly for the behoof of devourers of revenue This is no extravagant statement The increase of all official emoluments the augmented cost of every department of state government, and the creation of a debt more than ten times greater than the constitutional limit of indebtedness, fully bear out the charge And it is virtually acknowledged in the Democratic platform.

For the last twelve years the state has had much to do in its affairs with Turveydrops in deportment and Skimpoles in finance This was an infliction under the administration that last preceded Gov Grover's appearance at the head of affairs It cost considerable money then Besides small irregularities, there was money lost through downright stealing, but this last, through sureties has finally been recovered Against Gov Woods the most that could be said was that he greatly neglected business, or did it very loosely, and brought in against the state a bill of some hundreds of dollars for carriage hire May appropriated several thousand dollars outright This was their record Fortunate indeed would the state be had it fared so well in the hands of their successors All the losses from crooked transactions under the Woods administration are trifling in comparison with those under Grover's May acting as governor in the absence of Woods, took money by simple theft a definite and ascertained amount the loss of which has fallen on those who were so unfortunate as to be on his bond Grover, at the head of the board for the management of school funds, loaned directly to himself, or through others in ways by which he received the benefit, vastly larger sums on security not now worth the accrued interest of the loans His associates in the board aided in these transactions or gave them their assent, and one of these, the treasurer is now a candidate for re election

Hence though there be so grand disdain of men whose reputation for probity and success in their own business is really the highest assurance that can be had for integrity and capability for management of the business of the state, yet the opinion may be ventured that a majority of the people will not hold them in so light esteem It was not the correct thing to measure and certify the state printing at a rate which nearly or quite doubled its cost; nor was it sound business to refuse to pay money out of the treasury till a large additional amount of interest had accumulated on it No doubt from an official point of view it is business to multiply offices and double up salaries after the fashion which has been followed for several years but it is not the style of business which wins for an administration popular commendation and support. Oregon wants an administration which will not devote its energies to 'organizing the offices,' lending the school fund to its own members on straw security, messing up the state printing in a way that perpetrates huge robbery or favoring partisans at the expense of the public service The rule stated by Mr Beekman in his letter of acceptance is better "I pledge myself if chosen, to conduct the affairs of the state with the same care and scrupulous economy that would govern my own private business This will be accepted as preferable to a scornful disregard of business principles in public affairs.

PHANTOM MONEY

We print a letter from Mr M S Booth of Seattle, devoted to advocacy of the idea that the fiat of government can create money which shall be a representative of value quite as good as silver and gold, or even better This idea of money, stamped on any cheap material and redeemable in nothing of value is adhered to so resolutely by our theorists that probably not even a demonstration of its fallacy through experience of a collapse would shake their faith in the phantom money which their imagination has created Mr Booth is convinced that there is nothing in gold and silver which should make them more valuable than iron, and that the values they have are created by statutory enactment. This statement forgets that gold and silver are very difficult to procure that they answer better than any other known substances the demand for something expressing value which may be used as currency that the quantity obtained compared with the cost of working mines is small that they are consequently dear and that their producers can afford to part with them only on the same general conditions as those on which iron or tin miners give their metals to the community Whoever has a golden eagle has a guarantee of its continued value in the certainty that gold cannot be produced in quantity so great as to render it materially cheaper It is a solid concrete substance and expresses a value in every part of the world But it is said that the value of it depends on statutory enactments and if mankind should cease to use it as money it would have no more value than tin or iron A parallel statement would be that if the world should resolve to quit the use of water the stock of water companies would be about the poorest of all investments and mankind is about as likely to resolve against water for its natural uses as against gold as money The supposition that the world might discard the use of gold and silver as money and then these metals would be almost worthless is theory pushed to extreme of absurdity Fit complement of it is the supposition that the mandatory expression of government is the only thing necessary to give a commodity a value The talk of a paper currency redeemable in nothing but based on all the property of the nation is another visionary conception Since it is not to be redeemed in anything not even in oyster shells or scrap iron how can it be said to be based on any property whatever? It is not. It is phantom money worth what the paper will bring at the trunk maker's or the paper mill and nothing more

THE RAILROAD

It would seem that the bill for extension of the Northern Pacific grant is making progress, it having been reported to the senate and placed on the calendar but no announcement is yet made in regard to the Salt Lake bill Why this bill should not be urged at the same time with that of the Northern Pacific we are not advised but there are intimations that no one expects that anything will be done with it and that probably it will be abandoned This we should regret because if this grant could be obtained it might help in some way toward building a road from Umatilla toward the eastern boundary of the state The provisions of the Northern Pacific bill are quite simple They require construction of the road on the south side of the Columbia river, and the building of a portage road at the Cascades within two years and at the Dalles within two and a half and allow lands to be taken immediately along the whole route of the proposed road at a maximum price of $2 50 an acre Also the grant is to be extended for ten years instead of eight as contended for by Mitchell It will give the Northern Pacific company a chance to build instead of imposing burdens on them which would make such result impossible

Complaint has been made by the few ardent admirers of Senator Mitchell's railroad efforts that THE OREGONIAN's dispatches do not rightly represent what he is doing It should be borne in mind that THE OREGONIAN can find better business than that of exploiting the senator's buncome dispatches It leaves this work to the organs deeming its own duty sufficiently discharged when it gives the news The public are content to know how things are going without being bored by any of the laudations which the senator manages to have bestowed on himself

Speaking of the proposed international congress to fix the relative values of gold and silver the Labor World says

> What is the use of trying to fix the relative value of gold and silver? We hear so much about the intrinsic value of gold independent of every legal value, but we supposed there was no need of any such action

And this supposition is entirely correct The proposed international congress is a piece of folly and can settle nothing Values depend on the higher law

We have the following communication from Coffeyville, Kansas dated April 1, 1878

> I understand that their is a law in Oregon that if a mann is in the Habbet of Taking a Drink of whiskey he is to Pay a fine of $5 00 for one year Pleas answer & Oblige

The gentleman of Coffeyville need not fear to come to Oregon He will have no such fine to pay If the Habbet of Taking a Drink of whiskey" were fined to this extent in Oregon we should want no Moffatt bell punch

A letter from Washington City informs us that an offer has been made to contract with Hon D P Thompson, of Oregon, in case the Northern Pacific bill passes, to grade two hundred miles of road eastwardly from the mouth of Snake river and that the contract will probably be closed

WHILE [illegible] ASSASSINS—While [illegible] Dong Gong was passing along Fifteenth street between D and E yesterday afternoon about half past [illegible] o'clock he was suddenly set upon by four Chinamen who evidently meant to do him serious harm or perhaps take his life Notwithstanding there were four to one and [illegible] a small man he continued by his pluck and activity to stand his assailants off He beat as hasty a retreat as possible down Fifteenth street keeping his belligerent countrymen at bay Fearing that they would be detected and apprehended the assailants gave the job up took to their heels and left Dong Gong master of the field Two of the Chinamen ran down E street, and two started over toward the Tanner creek gulch Dong Gong was allowed to proceed on his way without further molestation He escaped without the least injury which was due to his spirited resistance and the cowardice of his countrymen The assailants are known to belong to the Moy Luke faction and hence their hatred of Dong Gong During the recent trial of the kidnappers Dong Gong was employed as an interpreter and the Chinese knowing that he had embraced Christianity and consequently was opposed to the system of slavery practiced toward the women readily supposed [illegible] he was the prime instigator of the prosecution Had a favorable opportunity presented these fellows would not have hesitated to take the life of the man they so deeply hate

ROUGH ON THE BOATS—Says the Astoria paper of yesterday One of Jos Humes fishing boats was seen returning to the cannery at Knappton about noon yesterday with only one man and part of a net Whether the other man was lost or not we did not learn The wind was blowing severely About [illegible] o'clock [illegible] at high tide yesterday one of Badollet & Co's fishing boats capsized near Scarborough hill The fishermen clung to the bottom and were rescued by one of Watson's fishing boats The net and boat are probably lost as the wind was blowing a gale at the time About 3 o clock yesterday morning a fishing boat was upset while under sail in the river near the city the wind being very strong The boat was picked up by two fishing boats passing, about two hours afterwards with two men sitting on the bottom, and brought to the shore The boat belonged to Wm Hume of Eagle Cliff and upon righting her it was found that the night's catch, which consisted of thirteen fish and a few utensils had been lost

PERJURY—HARD TO ANSWER—Monday morning an account was published in this paper of the arrest of one M Fox, by officer Gwynn Fox it will be remembered, made a spirited but unsuccessful resistance, and during the row received a severe blow on the head from the arresting officer A friend of Fox one Joseph Howard who was a witness to the affair made complaint against Gwynn, charging him with maltreating a prisoner The case was tried before Justice Evans, and after an examination of the whole matter, Gwynn was honorably acquitted by the court During the case it seems that this man Howard did some "tall swearing" in his efforts to convict Gwynn Yesterday Gwynn swore to a complaint charging Howard with having committed perjury A preliminary examination of the case was held, and the court deeming the testimony sufficiently conclusive to warrant the holding of Howard he was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $500

THE LECTURE—The second of the series of lectures by Matthew Hale Smith, delivered last evening in the Taylor-street M. E church, was on "Successful Men and how they won." The address was replete with instruction The incidents cited gave vividness to the central ideas of the lecture, and cannot fail to leave a wholesome influence upon many minds. The speaker urged that success is attainable on the certain immutable principles of honesty industry persistency, civility and adaptability The audience listened with unflagging interest to this forcibly illustrated and valuable lecture. The announcement was made at the opening of the service that Chaplain Stubbs would preach in the Taylor street M. E. church This appointment is recalled and Rev H. K. Hines, who spends the Sabbath in the city, will occupy the pulpit in the forenoon and Dr Matthew Hale Smith in the evening

THE S S OREGON TELEGRAPHED—The Oregon Steamship Company's new and magnificent steamer Oregon, which sailed from New York for Portland direct, on the 16th of last February, may be expected to reach here to-morrow afternoon or evening A telegram was received here yesterday that the Oregon was seen off Point Lobos near San Francisco, at 9 o clock A M steaming away to the north Such being the case, the steamer will probably reach here some time to morrow The Oregon is under command of Commodore O'Connor that old and experienced seaman She brings a full freight and a large number of passengers The steamer was not expected until about the 25th inst She has made a very quick trip Should she arrive before night Portland will turn out en masse to give the new and handsome visitor a right royal welcome

WEEKLY OREGONIAN.—THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN for this week can now be had at the business office It is an unusually interesting number, containing the latest news from all parts of the world, the doings of the governments of Europe over the vexed eastern question, full congressional proceedings accounts of the state of affairs on the Mexican border complete summary of important events everywhere notes of the political situation in the United States the tickets nominated by all parties in various counties in Oregon full report of the proceedings of the Republican state convention and the platform of the party editorials on the living questions of the day items of local news and commercial reports as complete a newspaper as ever published on the coast

OPEN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY—As usual interesting exercises may be expected at the meeting this evening of the Open Temperance Society at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association Good speeches will be made Splendid vocal and instrumental music will be furnished and one or more first class declamations of appropriate compositions Perhaps no more successful meeting has been held since the organization of the society than the one on last Saturday evening Exercises will commence promptly at [illegible] 30 and a cordial invitation is extended to all

MURDERED FOR MONEY—On the 16th inst the lifeless body of Capt James Goodwin, a well known citizen of the upper Molalla, in Clackamas county was found near the foot of the Cascade mountains about three miles from his residence The skull of the unfortunate man was found on examination to be fractured It is supposed that Goodwin had considerable money on his person which undoubtedly tempted the cupidity of his murderer So far as can be ascertained no clue of the perpetrator of the foul murder has been discovered

CANYON GARDEN—This popular place of resort will be reopened to morrow (Sunday) after having been thoroughly renovated Mr F Jena the proprietor has caused these grounds to be greatly improved and beautified in many particulars One of the most important and desirable [illegible] is a new dancing platform [illegible] doubtful characters will be allowed [illegible] it will be the chief aim of the proprietor to make the [illegible] Garden a family resort [illegible] Only 25 cents admission will be charged ladies and children free

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs Jacobs Bros & Co We have frequently had occasion to commend the extent and excellence of the stock of clothing carried by them [illegible] great improvements have lately been made in the styles and finish of the Oregon City cassimeres and these goods are made up by Messrs Jacobs Bros & Co into men's youths and boys clothing in the latest and most desirable cuts The durability of these goods has been too often proved to need further mention at our hands We recommend Messrs Jacobs Bros & Co to our interest [illegible] and we advise our readers in general to buy the cheapest and best the Oregon City clothing

WOULD-BE ASSASSINS —While [illegible] was passing along Fifteenth street between D and E yesterday afternoon at about half past 3 o'clock he was suddenly set upon by four Chinamen who evidently meant to do him serious bodily harm or perhaps take his life Notwithstanding there were four [illegible] and Dong Gong is a small man [illegible] matched, by his pluck and activity to start his assailants off. He beat as hasty a retreat as possible down E street keeping [illegible] his countrymen at bay Fearing that they would be detected and apprehended the [illegible] gave the job up took to their heels and left Dong Gong master of the field. [illegible] of the Chinamen ran down F street and [illegible] over toward the Tanner creek gulch [illegible] Dong Gong was allowed to proceed on [illegible] way without further molestation He escaped without the least injury which was due to his spirited resistance and the cowardice of his countrymen The assailants are known as belonging to the Moy Luke faction and he [illegible] their hatred of Dong Gong During the [illegible] trial of the kidnappers Dong Gong was employed as an interpreter and the Chinese knowing that he had embraced Christianity and consequently was opposed to the system of slavery practiced toward the women [illegible] supposed that he was the prime instigator of the prosecution Had a favorable opportunity presented these fellows would not have hesitated to take the life of the man they so deeply hate

LOSS ON THE BOATS —Says the Astorian of yesterday 'One of Jos Hume's fishing boats was seen returning to the cannery at Knappton about noon yesterday with only one man and part of a net Whether the other man was lost or not we did not learn. The wind was blowing severely. About 1 o'clock P M, at high tide yesterday one of Badollet & Co's fishing boats capsized near Scarborough hill. The fishermen clung to the bottom and were rescued by one of Wilson's fishing boats The net and boat are probably lost, as the wind was blowing a gale at the time. About 3 o clock yesterday morning a fishing boat was upset while under sail in the river near the city, the wind being very strong. The boat was picked up by two fishing boats passing about two hours afterwards with two men sitting on the bottom and brought to the shore The boat belonged to Wm. Hume, of Eagle Cliff, and upon righting her it was found that the night's catch which consisted of thirteen fish and a few [illegible], had been lost'

PERJURY—HELD TO ANSWER – Monday morning an account was published in this paper of the arrest of one M Fox by officer Gwynn. Fox it will be remembered made a spirited but unsuccessful resistance and during the row received a severe blow on the head from the arresting officer A friend of Fox, one Joseph Howard who was a witness to the affair, made complaint against Gwynn charging him with maltreating a prisoner The officer was tried before Justice Evans and after an examination of the whole matter Gwynn was honorably acquitted by the court During the case it seems that this man Howard did some "tall swearing" in his efforts to convict Gwynn Yesterday Gwynn swore to a complaint charging Howard with having committed perjury A preliminary examination of the case was had and the court deeming the testimony sufficiently conclusive to warrant the holding of Howard, he was bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of [illegible]

THE LECTURE —The second of the series of lectures by Matthew Hale Smith delivered last evening in the Taylor street M E church was "Successful Men and how they won." The address was replete with instruction. The incidents cited gave vividness to the central ideas of the lecture and cannot fail to have a wholesome influence upon many minds. The speaker urged that success is attainable by the certain immutable principles of integrity, industry, persistency civility and sobriety. The audience listened with unflagging interest to this forcibly illustrated and valuable lecture. The announcement was made at the opening of the service that [illegible] would preach in the Taylor street M. E. church This appointment is annulled and Rev. H. K Hines, who spends Sabbath in the city, will occupy the pulpit in the forenoon, and Dr Matthew Hale Smith in the evening.

THE S. S. "OREGON" TELEGRAPHED —The Oregon Steamship Company's new and magnificent steamer Oregon, which sailed from New York for Portland, direct, on the 16th of [illegible], may be expected to reach here [illegible] afternoon or evening A telegram was received here yesterday that the Oregon was off Point Lobos, near San Francisco at 8 o'clock, A. M, steaming away to the north. Such being the case, the steamer will probably reach here some time to morrow. The Oregon is under command of Commodore [illegible], an old and experienced seaman. She brings a full freight and a large number of passengers. The steamer was not expected until about the 25th inst. She has made a very quick trip. Should she arrive before night, Portland will turn out en masse to give the new and handsome visitor a right royal welcome.

WEEKLY OREGONIAN.—THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN for this week can now be had at the counting office. It is an unusually interesting number, containing the latest news from all parts of the world, the doings of the government and Congress over the vexed eastern question, congressional proceedings accounts of affairs on the Mexican border complete summary of important events every[illegible], notes of the political situation in the United States, the tickets nominated by all parties in various counties in Oregon full report of the proceedings of the Republican state convention, and the platform of the party, editorials on the living questions of the day, items of local news and commercial reports, and a complete newspaper as ever published on the coast.

OPEN TEMPERANCE SOCIETY —As usual interesting exercises may be expected at the meeting this evening of the Open Temperance Society at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association. Good speeches will be made and vocal and instrumental music will be furnished, and one or more first class declamations of appropriate compositions. Perhaps no more successful meeting has been held since the organization of the society than the one on last Saturday evening Exercises will commence promptly at 7 30 and a cordial invitation is extended to all

MURDERED FOR MONEY —On the 16th inst the lifeless body of Capt. James Goodwin a well-known citizen of the upper Molalla in Clackamas county, was found near the foot of the Cascade mountains, about three miles from his residence. The skull of the unfortunate man was found on examination to be fractured. It is supposed that Goodwin had considerable money on his person which undoubtedly tempted the cupidity of his murderer So far as can be ascertained no clue of the perpetrator of the foul murder has been discovered.

CANYON GARDENS.—This popular place of resort will be reopened to morrow (Sunday) after having been thoroughly renovated Mr [illegible], the proprietor, has caused the grounds to be greatly improved and beautified in many particulars One of the most important and desirable improvements is a new dancing platform No doubtful characters will be allowed, and it will be the chief aim of the proprietor to make the Canyon Gardens a "family resort" for the city. Only [illegible] cents admission will be charged ladies and children free.

We desire to call the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Messrs. Jacobs Bros & Co We have frequently had occasion to commend the extent and excellence of the stock of clothing carried by them. Great improvements have [illegible] been made in the styles and finish of [illegible] City cassimeres, and these goods are made up by Messrs. Jacobs Bros. & Co into men's [illegible] and boys' clothing, in the latest and most d[illegible] [illegible]. The durability of these goods has been so often proven to need further mention at our hands. We recommend Messrs Jacobs Bros & Co to the interior merchants, and we advise our readers in general to buy the cheapest and best [illegible] Oregon City clothing.

Try the lunches as served by Barnes at the Central Market.

OBSERVE THIS.

Persons desirous of getting their money's worth should study a moment and consider the fact that this can be done by going to the place where they have the facilities to enable them to offer goods at prices far below the average Now Monastes has by arrangements made during a recent trip east been able to purchase goods at much lower prices than in years gone by What is more he pays cash which gives him an opportunity to obtain bedrock prices Accordingly he has marked all goods down Looking through his store yesterday we found a large stock of Glassware Queensware Crockery Lamp Stock Platedware etc A goodly portion of the stock arrived by the bark [illegible] Among the lot is a new line of Glassware, made by the New England Flint Glass Co of Pittsburg These goods are especially fine being of the best flint and neatly chased and are far superior to anything of the kind offered in this market besides they are cheaper than imported goods of like character The stock of Platedware is very fine and a very material reduction is noted here in the matter of prices Parties purchasing should recollect these matters call on Monastes 129 First street and secure bargains

THE FEAST OF APPLE BLOOM

When the sky is a dream of violet
And the days are rich with gold
And the satin robe of the earth is set
With the jewels wrought of old
And the woodlands wave in [illegible] seas
And the purple mountains loom
It's Heaven to come with birds and bees
To the feast of apple bloom

II

For the gabled roof of home arose
O'er the sheen of the orchard [illegible]
And is still my shrine when storms repose
And the gnarly branches blow
And the music of childhood [illegible]
That was lost in the backward gloom
May be heard when the robins [illegible]
At the feast of apple bloom

III

And I think when the trees display their own
Like the gleam of a resting [illegible]
Of a face that was framed in tresses brown
And aglow with a mother's love
At the end of the orchard path she stands
And I laugh at my manhood's doom
As my spirit flies with lifted hands
To the feast of apple bloom

IV

When the rainbow paths of faded skies
Are restored with the diamond [illegible]
And the joys of my wasted paradise
Are returning to earth again
It's sadder than death to know how brief
Are the smiles that the dead assume
But a moment allowed a flying leaf
From the feast of apple bloom

But a golden arch forever shines
In the dim and darkening past,
Where I stand again as day declines
And the world is bright and vast
For the glory that lies along the lane
Is endeared with sweet perfume
And the world is ours and we are twain
At the feast of apple bloom

VI

She was more than fair in the wreath she wore
Of the creamy buds and blows
And she comes to me from the speechless shore
When the flowering orchard glows
And I sigh for the dreams as sweet and swift,
That are laid in a sacred tomb—
Yet are nothing at last but fragrant drift
From the feast of apple bloom.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

Chronic and Acute Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically he has restored them to health and happiness for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases Catarrh Bronchitis and all diseases of the throat and chest by an entirely new system only known to himself Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States Diseases of the stomach bowels liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of and never fails to give relief at once and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES

to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints and understands their delicate and refined organization as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE

over most physicians—he can tell the patients disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual This accounts in part for the great professional success

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand and the patient need not fear the result.

will send to those living at a distance and who can not well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally and will forward the proper medicines or instruments to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions must contain two postage stamps

Everything strictly confidential and honorable

THE DOCTOR

has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify

CAUTION

Persons coming to Portland requiring medical treatment of the proper kind who desire to consult with me will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so called Doctors through pretended friendship for the patients Look out for them they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN the Medical Lecturer and read his sign on his door
